

3

"My survival is entirely due to the extreme generosity of the British government in 1938"

20

5

10

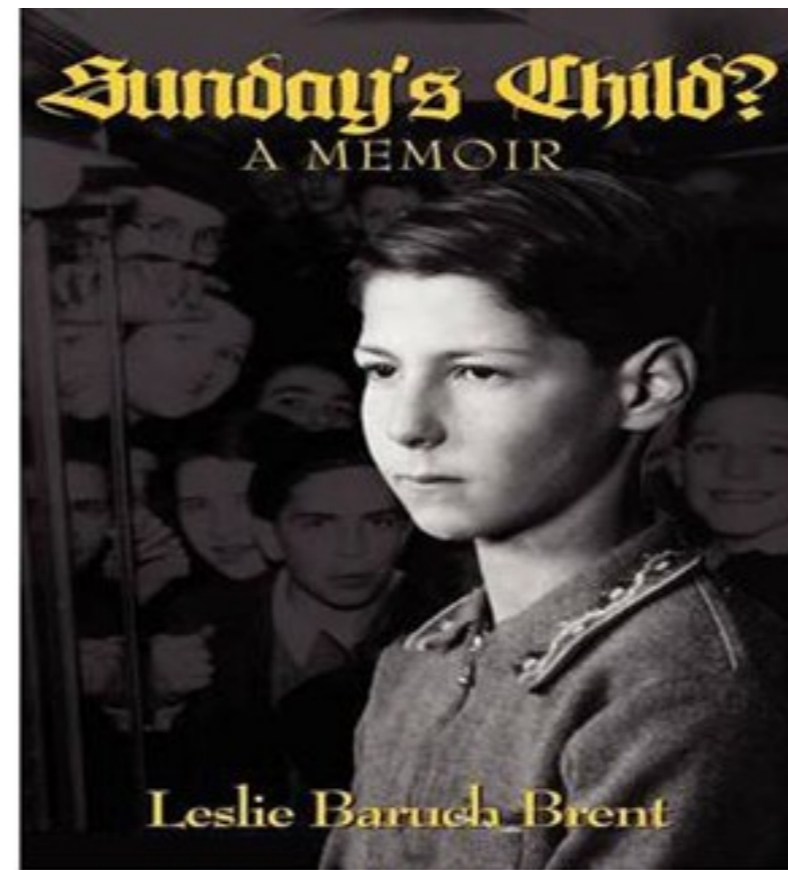

7

2

The atmosphere in Harwich as the children stepped off the boat to a throng of press was welcoming. "The policemen smiled at us," he says.

17

13

"We landed after a very stormy night, everyone except me was sick. We were all unslept, unkempt, unwashed and bewildered. We were in the same clothes, I had only eaten the sandwiches my mother gave me"

19

8

16

11

1

"I was thinking where am I going, what's happening to me, what does the future hold?"

18

4

12

15

14

6